About National Sun Yat-sen University

National Sun Yat-sen University (NSYSU) was established in 1980 in Kaohsiung and has become one of the most promising universities in Taiwan. NSYSU has endeavored to pursue excellence in teaching and research with support of the Ministry of Education through the "Aim for the Top University Plan." The various English curriculums and cultural experiences have created an excellent learning environment for local and international students. The NSYSU campus is uniquely located by the beach with the mountain in the back, so hiking, bicycling, wind surfing, and boat sailing are common activities.
